

CN NxtGen Conservationist Program

Review and prepare your microgrant application questions. If applying through our portal, you will submit your answers in the online forms. If you are submitting your application by email, please include your answers with the full application.

APPLICANT QUESTIONS

1. How did you hear about the CN NxtGen Conservationists Program?
2. If you receive a microgrant and are accepted into the CN NxtGen Conservationists Program, what do you hope to learn?

MICROGRANT QUESTIONS - Provide information about your project proposal. Your answers should be descriptive enough for Conservation Nation to get a good idea of what your project is and how you plan to spend your funds. Conservation Nation recognizes that project plans often change; your timeline and budget can be estimates.

1. Name of Project:
2. Amount Requested (up to $500):
3. Describe your project. How will this project save, protect, or promote wildlife and/or the environment?
4. What are your project's goals?
5. What community will your project serve? How are you a part of this community?
6. Why is this project needed in your community?
7. How many people do you expect your project to benefit or reach?
8. Besides you, are there any other people who will help you with this project? If so, who are they and what are their roles?
9. What is your expected timeline for this project?
10. How will you know if your project is successful?
11. Have you discussed this project with a leader from the community your project intends to benefit? YES/NO
12. If yes, name, title, and email of community leader:
13. If yes, this person over the age of 18? YES/NO

BUDGET

Provide a list of items you will purchase and the expenses for your microgrant. If you don't know exactly what you need, you can group items into categories such as "art supplies" or "bird watching equipment". Your entire budget should not exceed $500.
