

My Conservationist Identity

Name: _____

Conservation is the act of protecting Earth's natural resources for current and future generations.

A conservationist is a person who acts for the protection of the environment and wildlife.

Some things I already do to be a conservationist and conserve natural resources include:

- ___ Turning off lights when I leave a room.
- ___ Turning off water when I brush my teeth.
- ___ Not buying lots of stuff I don't need.
- ___ Trying not to waste food.
- ___ Using a reusable water bottle.
- ___ Riding my bike or using public transportation.
- ___ Gardening to grow my own food.
- ___ Other: _____

Activities that I already enjoy doing outside in nature or would like to do more of:

Places in nature that are special to me:

If I could write a movie about the future I want for our planet, I would call it:

Three words to describe me are:

Animals or environmental topics I would like to learn more about:

What caring for the environment means to me in my own words:

My conservation mission statement:

I will act as a conservationist and do my part to protect the planet for current and future generations by

As I develop my conservationist identity, I will strive to learn more about _____

When I think about my future, I want to be a person who _____